Thank-You to Spring Volunteers!

Thanks to the efforts of some dedicated community members t-ball, farm, baseball, and softball leagues enjoyed another fun & successful season! I hope that you had a chance to cheer on some of the local players. The 104 kids that participated this year would not have been able to enjoy this great American sport without some dedicated volunteer coaches, parent helpers, and umpires. This year's umpires were: Jay Polimeno, Charlie Hanson, Lonnie Sawyer, Sam Boyle, Guy Hoover, Aimee Polimeno, Joe Desjardins, Andrew Kelley, Butch Chase, Vance Pickering, Brian Rineer, Lennie Dovholuk, Ralph Bradley, John McGinley, Dirk Lyons, Tony Torino, and Will Desjardins. THANK-YOU to The Lin-Wood School for continually allowing our softball & baseball teams to use the gym & EMPR for pre-season practices, and to the Red Sox and Rockies players, coaches and parents for participating in the 2011 spring clean-up day at the Kanc. Rec Area.

In an effort to give all of the kids credit for a season well played, and the coaches their due appreciation for a season of time and patience, I've listed the teams on the next page. Please take the time to thank these coaches for the positive memories they have given to your community's youth!

THANK-YOU ALL!
